

MERCY COLLEGE

Standard Collection Notice

Standard Collection Notice

1. Mercy College ("The College") collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents or guardians before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the School. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations and may be direct from the individual or from another source. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College, Catholic Education Offices and the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria Ltd (CECV) to meet its educational, administrative and duty of care responsibilities to the student to enable them to take part in all the activities of the School.
2. Some of the information the College collects is to satisfy the School's legal obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts and Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health information about students (which includes information about any disability) is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. The College may request medical reports about students from time to time and may otherwise collect sensitive information about students and their families.
5. If any personal information requested by the College is not provided, this may affect the College's ability to enroll a student, respond to enquiries, provide the student with educational and support services or allow a person to visit the College.
6. The College may disclose personal and sensitive information for administrative, educational and support purposes (or may permit information to be directly collected by third parties). This may include to:
 - School service providers such as the CECV, Catholic Education Offices, parish, school governing bodies and other dioceses
 - third party service providers that provide online educational and assessment support services or applications (apps)*, which may include email and instant messaging
 - School systems, including the Integrated Catholic Online Network (ICON) and Google's 'G Suite' including Gmail and Microsoft Office. Limited personal information^ may be collected and processed or stored by these providers in connection with these services
 - CECV to undertake financial modelling for students with a disability, including ongoing evaluation of funding adequacy for individual students
 - CECV to support the training of selected staff in the use of the schools' systems, such as ICON
 - another school to facilitate the transfer of a student
 - Federal and State government departments and agencies
 - Health service providers, and people providing educational, support and health services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, sports coaches, volunteers and counsellors, and providers of learning and assessment tools

MERCY COLLEGE

Standard Collection Notice

- assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority
 - people providing administrative and financial services to the College
 - anyone you authorise the College to disclose information to
 - anyone to whom the College is required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including under child protection laws.
7. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians.
 8. The College may also use cloud computing service providers to store personal information (which may include sensitive information) on their servers in the 'cloud'. These servers may be located in or outside Australia. This may mean that personal information may be stored or processed outside Australia.
 9. As not all countries are bound by laws which provide the same level of protection for personal information as the APPs, the College makes reasonable efforts to be satisfied about the protection of any personal information that may be collected, processed and stored outside Australia in connection with any cloud and third party services.
 10. When the College uses Google's G-Suite including Gmail, some personal information (usually limited to name and email address) of students, parents or guardians may be transferred, stored and processed by Google in the United States, or in any other country through which Google provides these services or where it processes and stores information. This personal information will be stored and processed by Google in accordance with Google's terms and conditions stated in the G-Suite for Education Agreement which the College entered into with Google.
 11. The countries in which servers and other third party service providers may be located are:
 - Australia
 - United States
 12. Where personal, including sensitive information is held by a 'cloud' service provider on behalf of CECV for educational and administrative purposes, it will be stored on servers located within Australia. This includes the ICON system.
 13. College personnel, and the College's service providers and the CECV may have the ability to access, monitor, use or disclose emails, communications (e.g. instant messaging), documents and associated administrative data for the purposes of administering the ICON system and ensuring its proper use.
 14. The College may disclose limited personal information to the school parish to facilitate religious and sacramental programs, and other activities such as fundraising.
 15. The College's Privacy Policy is accessible via the College website, newsletter, handbook, or from the College office. The policy sets out how parents, guardians or students may seek access to, and correction of their personal information which the College has collected and holds. However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to the student, or where students have provided information in confidence. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons if appropriate.

MERCY COLLEGE

Standard Collection Notice

16. The College's Privacy Policy also sets out how parents, guardians, students and their family can make a complaint if they believe the College has interfered with their privacy
17. The College may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the College's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
18. On occasions, information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in College newsletters and magazines, on the College intranet and on our website. This may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions. The College will obtain permissions annually from the student's parent or guardian (and from the student if appropriate) prior to publication to enable the College to include such photographs or videos (or other identifying material) in our promotional material or otherwise make this material available to the public such as on the internet. The College may obtain permissions annually, or as part of the enrolment process. Permissions obtained at enrolment may apply for the duration of the student's enrolment at the College unless the College is notified otherwise. Annually, the College will remind parents and guardians to notify the College if they wish to vary the permissions previously provided.
19. If you provide the College with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them you are disclosing that information to the College and why. Also, that they can request access to and correction of that information if they wish and to refer them to the College's Privacy Policy for further details about such requests and how the College otherwise handles personal information it collects and complaints it receives.

Status of Document
Approved by: Leadership Team	Date: 24 January 2018
Approved by: Advisory Board	Date: 15 February 2018
Review Date: Annually	Date: 2019